

Sterling Risk Advisors' Garret Lazenby Named to Board of Directors of Transportation Club of Atlanta

ATLANTA, Dec. 17, 2013 — Garret Lazenby, a broker with Sterling Risk Advisors, has been named to the Board of Directors of the Transportation Club of Atlanta (TCA). He will serve for a one-year term.

Lazenby helps lead the transportation, logistics, and supply chain practice for Sterling Risk Advisors. His passion goes beyond the transportation, logistics, and supply chain industries to include a broad range of insurance solutions for professionals, general commercial business, and community associations.

The TCA (<http://www.transportationclubofatlanta.com>) has been a leading logistics forum in Atlanta for more than 100 years. Members include the leading shippers, carriers, logistics providers, and other companies that provide services to these industries in Metro-Atlanta. The group brings together transportation, logistics, and supply chain professionals promoting the exchange of information, experience, ideas, and cooperation among its members and guests.

The organization has been a continual scholarship supporter for university students. One of their most recent success stories has been helping Georgia companies connect with Georgia-based university students on supply chain, transportation, and logistics internships.

Three other new board members were also named:

- David Craig, Director of Transportation and New Product Integration with Cox Communications Inc.
- Peter Troup, Director with Eve Partners, LLC
- Frances Novak Tinsley, Customer Project Manager with Unisource Logistics Solutions
